Pleasures of Life in India. A band of poisoners is believed to be at work on the railways in the North-West Provinces, says a Bombay paper. There has been during the past few months a large number of deaths in carriages among the native third-class passengers traveling on the East Indian railway. The bodies are handed over by the railway authorities to the police, who dispose of them as expeditiously as possible.

Government Buildings. The System Governing Their Erection and Cost. How the Plans for New Buildings Are Expended Through by Congressmen—The Need of Proper Restrictions. In many of our cities and large towns the most noticeable structure is the government building. There are now nearly four hundred such buildings scattered through the country. The number has been greatly increased in recent years, and the expenditure for construction has become a large annual item in the appropriation bills of congress.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. "Madam," said the tramp, "I'd like to chop that wood for you; I would, really. But it would be against my principles—a generous nature couldn't stand it." "Why?" "Because, if I was to do it, there would be less wood for some other hungry man to chop."—Washington Star.
